These Revised Bylaws (hereinafter "Revised Bylaws") contain amendments to the original Bylaws of The Park at Kissing Camels Estates Homeowners Association adopted by the initial Board of Directors, February 20, 1981, and the Amended and Restated Bylaws adopted in 1984 (the "1984 Bylaws"). These Revised Bylaws correctly set forth the provisions of the Bylaws, as amended, and have been duly adopted by the Board of Directors as required by the 1984 Bylaws. These Revised Bylaws supersede the original Bylaws and the 1984 Bylaws and all amendments thereto, which are hereby amended and restated.

ARTICLE I OBJECT
(Plan of Ownership)

1. The Park at Kissing Camels Estates Homeowners Association (hereinafter the "Association") shall be a non-profit corporation as provided in the Amended and Restated Articles of Incorporation and these Revised Bylaws, particularly Article XI hereof.

2. The purpose for which this non-profit Association is formed is to govern the property which has been or will be submitted to the provisions of a recorded Declaration of Covenants, Conditions and Restrictions of The Park at Kissing Camels Estates, and any amendments or revisions thereto (hereinafter called the "Declaration"). Terms which are defined in the Declaration shall have the same meaning herein, unless otherwise defined.

3. All present or future owners, tenants, future tenants or any other person that might use in any manner the Property described in the Declaration are subject to the regulations set forth in these Revised Bylaws. The mere acquisition or rental of any of the Lots or the mere act of use or occupancy of any of said Lots will signify that these Revised Bylaws are accepted, ratified and will be complied with.

ARTICLE II
MEMBERSHIP, VOTING, MAJORITY OF OWNERS, QUORUM AND PROXIES

1. Membership. Membership in the Association shall be as set forth in the Amended and Restated Articles of Incorporation of the Association and the Declaration. Such membership shall terminate without any formal Association action whenever such person ceases to be the Owner of a Lot, but such termination shall not relieve or release any such former Owner from any liability or obligation incurred under or in any way connected with this Association during the period of such ownership and membership in the Association, or impair any rights or remedies which the Lot Owners have, either through the Board of Directors of the Association or directly, against such former Owner and Member arising out of or in any way connected with ownership and membership and the covenants and obligations incident thereto.

2. Voting. Each membership shall have the vote(s) appurtenant thereto as described in the Amended and Restated Articles of Incorporation. When more than one person holds the membership, they shall appoint one of their co-members as proxy to cast the vote for that membership. Such vote shall be cast as the Owners thereof agree, but in no event shall more than one vote per question be cast with respect to any one membership. If the co-members cannot agree as to the manner in which their vote should be cast when called upon to vote, then they will be treated as having abstained.

3. Quorum. Except as otherwise provided in these Revised Bylaws, the presence in person or by proxy of Members holding one-third (1/3) of the votes entitled to be cast shall constitute a quorum. Unless otherwise specifically provided by the Declaration, the Amended and Restated Articles of Incorporation of the Association or these Revised Bylaws, all matters coming before a meeting of members at which a proper quorum is in attendance, in person and/or by proxy, shall be decided by the vote of a majority of the votes validly cast at such meeting.

No business except as stated in the notice shall be transacted at a special meeting unless by consent of a majority of the Members present, either in person or by proxy. The mailing of a notice in the manner provided in this Section or the delivery of such notice shall be considered notice served, and the certificate of the Secretary that notice was duly given shall be prima facie evidence thereof.

6. Adjourned Meetings. If any meeting of Members cannot be organized because a quorum has not attended, the Members who are present, either in person or by proxy, may adjourn the meeting, to a time not less than forty-eight (48) hours from the time the original meeting was called.

4. Volunteers, Nomination and Election. No Director shall be entitled to receive any compensation for the performance of his duties, but shall be entitled to reimbursement for expenses incurred by him. Nomination for election to the Board of Directors shall be made by a Nominating Committee. Nominations may also be made from the floor at the annual meeting. The Nominating Committee shall consist of a Chairman, who shall be a Member of the Board of Directors, and two (2) or more Members of the Association. The Nominating Committee shall be appointed by the Board of Directors prior to each annual meeting of the members to serve from the close of such annual meeting until the close of the next annual meeting, and such appointment shall be announced at each annual meeting. The Nominating Committee shall make as many nominations for election to the Board of Directors as it shall in its discretion determine, but not less than the number of vacancies that are to be filled. Election to the Board of Directors shall be by secret written ballot. At such election the Members or their proxies may cast, in respect to each vacancy, as many votes as they are entitled to exercise under the provisions of the Declaration and these Revised Bylaws. The persons receiving the largest number of votes shall be elected. Cumulative voting is not permitted.

5. Vacancies. Vacancies in the Board caused by any reason, other than the removal of a Director by a vote of the Association, shall be filled by vote of the majority of the remaining Directors, even though they may constitute less than a quorum; and each person so elected shall serve the remainder of his predecessor's term or until his successor is elected, whichever is longer.

6. Removal of Directors. At any regular or special meeting of Members duly called with notice specifying such purpose, any one or more of the Directors may be removed with or without cause by a vote of a majority of the Members, and a successor may then and there be elected to fill the vacancy thus created. Any Director whose removal has been proposed by the Members shall be given an opportunity to be heard at the meeting prior to voting thereon.

7. Organization Meeting. The first meeting of a newly elected Board shall be held within ten (10) days following each annual meeting of the Members at such place as shall be fixed by the Directors at the meeting at which such Directors were elected, and no notice shall be necessary to the newly-elected Directors in order legally to constitute such meeting, providing a majority of the whole Board shall be present.

10. Waiver of Notice. Before or at any meeting of the Board, any Director may, in writing, waive notice of such meeting and such waiver shall be deemed equivalent to the giving of such notice. Attendance by a Director at any meeting of the Board shall be a waiver of notice by him of the time and place thereof. If all of the Directors are present at any meeting of the Board, no notice shall be required and any business may be transacted at such meeting. The Board may take any action by unanimous written consent as allowed by the Colorado Non-Profit Corporation Act.

11. Board of Directors' Quorum. At all meetings of the Board, a majority of the Directors shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business, and the acts of the majority of the Directors present at a meeting at which a quorum is present shall be the acts of the Board. If, at any meeting of the Board, there be less than a quorum present, the majority of those present may adjourn the meeting from time to time. At any such adjourned meeting, any business which might have been transacted at the meeting as originally called may be transacted without further notice.

12. Fidelity Bonds. The Board shall require that any officer and/or employee of the Association and any managing agent who handles or is responsible for Association funds furnish adequate fidelity bonds. The premiums on such bonds, in regards to the Association's officers and employees only, shall be a common expense.

ARTICLE V

1. Designation. The Officers of the Association shall be a President, one or more Vice Presidents, a Secretary and a Treasurer, all of whom shall be elected by the Board, and such assistant officers as the Board shall, from time to time, elect. With the exception of the President, such Officers need not be members of the Board of Directors, but each shall be an Owner or an officer or director of a corporate Owner of a Lot in this Project. Any two or more offices may be held by the same person, except the office of President and Secretary.

2. Election of Officers. The Officers of the Association shall be elected annually by the Board at the organizational meeting of each new Board and shall hold office for one year or shorter term as provided in these Revised Bylaws. The powers and duties of the officers shall be subject to requirements and limitations of the Declaration.

A vacancy in any office may be filled by appointment by the Board at any regular meeting or special meeting called for that purpose. The Officer appointed to such vacancy shall serve for the remainder of the term of the Officer he replaces.

4. President. The President shall be the chief executive officer of the Association. He shall preside at all meetings of the Association and of the Board. He shall have all of the general powers and duties which are usually vested in the office of president of an association, including but not limited to the power to appoint such committees from among the Owners as from time to time he may in his discretion decide are appropriate to assist in the conduct of the affairs of the Association.

5. Vice President. The Vice President shall have all the powers and authority and perform all the functions and duties of the President, in the absence of the President, or his inability for any reason to exercise such powers and functions or perform such duties, and shall exercise and discharge such other duties as may be required of him by the Board.

6. Secretary. The Secretary shall keep all the minutes of the meetings of the Board and the minutes of all meetings of the Association; he shall have charge of such books and papers as the Board may direct; and he shall, in general, perform all the duties incident to the office of Secretary. Such list shall also show opposite each Member's name the number or other appropriate designation of the Lot. Such list shall be open to inspection by Members and other persons lawfully entitled to inspect the same at reasonable times during regular business hours. In addition, a list of all Mortgagees of Lots shall be maintained. The records referred to in this subsection may be maintained by the managing agent, if applicable.

7. Treasurer. The Treasurer shall have the responsibility for the Association's funds and shall be responsible for keeping full and accurate accounts of all receipts and disbursements in books belonging to the Association; provided, however, that when a managing agent has been delegated the responsibility of collecting and disbursing funds, the Treasurer's responsibility shall be to review the accounts of the managing agent not less often than quarterly.

ARTICLE VI

1. Indemnification. The Association shall indemnify every Director and Officer, their respective successors, personal representatives and heirs, against all loss, costs and expenses, including counsel fees, reasonably incurred by them in connection with any action, suit or proceeding to which they may be made parties by reason of their being or having been a Director or Officer of the Association, except as to matters as to which they shall be finally adjudged in such action, suit or proceeding to be liable for gross negligence or willful misconduct. In the event of a settlement (which is approved by the attorney for the insurers and paid out of insurance funds), indemnification shall be provided only in connection with such matters covered by the settlement as to which the Association is advised by counsel that the person to be indemnified has not been guilty of gross negligence or willful misconduct in the performance of his duty as such Director or Officer in relation to the matter involved. The foregoing rights shall not be exclusive of other rights to which such Director or Officer may be entitled by law, statute or any document, resolution, or agreement of the Association. All liability, loss, damage, cost and expense incurred or suffered by the Association by reason of, arising out of, or in connection with the foregoing indemnification provisions shall be treated and handled by the Association as common expenses; provided, however, that nothing in this Article VI shall be deemed to obligate the Association to indemnify any Member(s) or Owner(s) of a Lot, who is or has been a Director or Officer of the Association, with respect to any duties or obligations assumed or liabilities incurred by him under and by virtue of such person's status as a Member or Owner under the Declaration, the Amended and Restated Articles of Incorporation, or these Revised Bylaws, nor shall any provision of this Article VI alter, affect or impair any insurance coverage of Directors, Officers or the Association.

2. Other. Duly authorized and approved contracts or other commitments made by the Board of Directors or any Officer(s) shall be made as agent for the Association, and they shall have no personal responsibility on any such contract or commitment.

ARTICLE VII

These Revised Bylaws may be amended at a duly constituted regular or special meeting, by approval of at least two-thirds (2/3’s) of the Members, who are voting as provided by Article II of these Revised Bylaws. Association's Secretary, giving the name and address of his Mortgagee. The Association shall maintain such information in a book entitled "Mortgagees of Lots."

2. Notice of Unpaid Common Expenses. This Association, whenever so requested in writing by a Mortgagee of a Lot, shall promptly report any then unpaid common expenses due from the Owner of its mortgaged Lot, or any other default by the Owner of a mortgaged Lot, which delinquency in payment or other default is not cured within thirty (30) days from the date of the occurrence.

Current copies of the Declaration, Amended and Restated Articles of Incorporation, Revised Bylaws, rules and regulations, and the latest financial statement of the Association shall be available for examination by prospective purchasers of Lots. The word "available", as used herein, shall at least mean available for inspection, upon request, during normal weekday business hours or under other reasonable circumstances. Such registered address of a Member or Owner shall be furnished to the Secretary of the Association within fifteen (15) days after transfer of title, or after a change of address, and such registration shall be in written form and signed by all of the Owners of the Lot or by such persons as are authorized by law to represent the interest of (all of) the Owners thereof.

3. Designation of Voting Representative - Proxy. If a Lot is owned by one person, his right to vote shall be established by the record title thereto. If title to a Lot is held by more than one person or by a firm, corporation, partnership, association or other legal entity, or any combination thereof, such Owners shall execute a proxy appointing and authorizing one person or alternate persons to attend all annual and special meetings of members and thereat to cast whatever vote the Owner himself might cast if he were personally present. Such proxy shall be effective and remain in force unless voluntarily revoked, amended or sooner terminated by operation of law; provided, however, that within thirty (30) days after such revocation, amendment or termination, the Owners shall reappoint and authorize one person or alternate persons to attend all annual and special meetings as provided by this Section 3.

7. Use of Common Area. Each Owner may use the Common Areas, sidewalks, pathways, roads and streets and other common areas, located within the entire Project in accordance with the purpose for which they were intended without hindering or encroaching upon the lawful rights of the other Owners, and subject to the rules and regulations contained in these Revised Bylaws or established by the Board as is provided in Section 9 of this Article.

8. Right of Entry. Each Member shall and does grant the right of entry to any person authorized by the Board in case of an emergency originating in or threatening his Lot, whether the Member is present at the time or not.

The provisions herein are not applicable to any managing agent who shall perform its manager's duties and functions according to a written agreement for the compensation stated therein.

ARTICLE XII
In the case of any conflict between the Amended and Restated Articles of Incorporation and these Revised Bylaws, the Amended and Restated Articles of Incorporation shall control. In the case of any conflict between the Declaration and these Revised Bylaws or between the Declaration and the Amended and Restated Articles of Incorporation, the Declaration shall control.

ARTICLE XIII
ASSESSMENTS

1. Assessment Procedure in General. As more fully provided in the Declaration, each Member is obligated to pay to the Association annual and special assessments which are secured by a continuing lien upon the Owner's Lot. No Owner may waive or otherwise escape liability for the assessments provided for herein by nonuse of the Common Area or abandonment of his Lot or by asserting any claim or defense against the Association.

2. Special Assessments. Any special assessment shall require the assent of two-thirds (2/3) of the votes of the Members who are voting in person or by proxy at a meeting duly called for that purpose. Written notice of any meeting called for the purpose of taking such action shall be sent to all Members not less than thirty (30) days or more than sixty (60) days in advance of the meeting.
